Welcome to our Volunteer Services Program

Volunteering is an excellent way to become an essential part of Nemaha Valley Community Hospital (NVCH). NVCH volunteers have the opportunity to be of service to our patients, their families and staff while gaining the personal satisfaction of knowing that they are helping others.

Our program builds meaningful connections, caring relationships and positive engagement between volunteers, patients and their families.

Benefits of Volunteering at NVCH

Volunteering has many proven benefits. There are numerous tangible effects including learning new skill sets, developing better communication practices and building new relationships.

Volunteering has also been proven to increase life expectancy, functional ability and overall physical and mental health for those giving of their time.

Whether you volunteer to achieve personal fulfillment or to learn new skills for professional growth, your time is a valuable contribution to NVCH and the entire community of care.

Opportunities

What kind of help can I provide?

There are many needs throughout Nemaha Valley Community Hospital where volunteers can provide service and make a difference. Our goal is to find the perfect fit—matching your interests with a need of ours.

Patient Support: assists patients and staff in various inpatient and outpatient departments of the hospital and clinic through various activities.

Information Desk: greets and provides information and direction to guests.

Staff Appreciation: supports staff and other volunteers through coordinated activities.

Lawn Care/Grounds Maintenance: trim shrubbery, clean up flower beds, pick up grass clippings & trash, etc.

Quilting, Knitting, Sewing: makes different items for hospital patients.

Special Projects: plant care, painting, etc.

Our volunteers are retirees, professionals, homemakers, students and men and women of all backgrounds who live in surrounding communities.

Volunteers are very special people who have one common purpose — they want to help others and make a difference.

Requirements

The Nemaha Valley Community Hospital Volunteer Service Program provides important assistance in serving our mission of providing personalized, compassionate health care while promoting wellness in the communities we serve.
