

Jason Werth, CRNA, NSPM-C

Committed and caring healthcare professional with more than 15 years' experience providing anesthesia, with an emphasis on pain management during the past 5 years. Performs greater than 2000 interventional pain procedures each year. Strives to improve the quality of life for patients in rural Kansas.

PRIMARY LOCATION:

Kansas Division

Position

Interventional Pain Management

Board Certification

Anesthesia and Pain Management

Residency

Arrowhead Regional Medical Center – Colton, CA

Education and Training

Texas Wesleyan University – Fort Worth, TX

College

Baker University – Topeka, KS

Clinical Appointments

Clinical Faculty - Texas Christian University – Fort Worth, TX

Family/Interests

Spending time with my wife and two children; our children are active in music study and athletics. We love spending time outdoors as a family (hiking, skiing, etc.)